Thematic Depth and Emotional Resonance

At its core, Walk Two Moons grapples with themes of grief, identity, and self-discovery. The motif of “walking two moons” itself is derived from a Native American proverb urging empathy: to truly understand another person, one must walk in their shoes. Loss and coping mechanisms are central to the novel. Salamanca’s journey is both literal and metaphorical, symbolizing her process of coming to terms with her mother’s absence.
